Serial No.

Mr. N. Deva Rao, Chief Reporter and Asst.Secretary to Govt. attains the age of superannuation on 16th Aug. 1933, ~~and~~ He has applied for the grant of leave preparatory to his retirement from service.

The possibility of abolishing the post held by him was examined in this connection. It is not quite necessary to have an officer of the status of a Gazetted Officer to supervise Reporting work and the separate post of Chief Reporter may be abolished. But Mr.Deva Rao is also in charge of certain sections (Medical, Public Health, Genl. Mis. etc.) of the Secretariat proper as Asst. Secretary to Govt. and in view of the recent reductions in the subordinate gazetted staff, it is found difficult to add on this work to the remaining officers. Further, the Finl. Secretary has been urging the need for giving him some relief from routine work which has considerably increased since the abolition of the post of Under Secretary, Finance. In view of these considerations, it is found desirable to have an officer with some experience of the Accounts Department, who could be placed in charge of the routine work of the Financial Branch and also certain other sections of the Secretariat. It is also separately under consideration to transfer Mr. T. L. Kantam, Asst. Secretary, Economic Conference to the Revenue Department with a view to his eventual absorption in that Department. In place of Messrs. Deva Rao and Kantam, ~~one competent~~ a Civil Service Officer may be taken to the Secretariat and work suitably re-distributed.
